

Shaping the minds of the next generation of Christian leaders.

BJU Press employees equip Christian educators with textbooks and materials that help children formulate a biblical worldview.

Our textbooks, video courses, and teacher resources affect nearly two million lives in seventy-five countries every day.

A fulfilling career for a brighter future.

“ I love knowing that my work at BJU Press is more than just graphic design. What I create should not just be well-designed or beautiful, it needs to communicate Truth. Students need to be able to think biblically in a deeply flawed world, and I hope my work helps equip them for that kind of thinking and living.

—Craig Oesterling, Graphic Designer

Working at BJU Press allows me the opportunity to help others follow the true math equation of life no matter what their vocation is in life. (2 Peter 1:5-7)

—Daryl Kopp, Bible Writer
